

Your rights and responsibilities

Resettlement and Integration

This is an Easy Read document with information on your rights and responsibilities

Involve

 Integration is a two way process - you have rights but you also have responsibilities.

Your rights

- You have the right to receive support such as:
- Health care
- Education (children must be educated)
- Public funds
- Integration support please contact your council

 There are laws to protect you when you are working; you have rights as an employee.

- You are entitled to:
- a minimum wage
- to receive paid holiday
- not to be overworked.

- You have the right:
- to liberty
- to freedom of thought
- to marry

Your responsibilities

• You are expected to stick to a set of core values and responsibilities.

- These core values include to:
- Respect and obey the law
- Respect the rights and opinions of others
- Treat others with fairness

For London

- Learn about your local area and how to access services.
- For travel you can find help at Transport For London.

• You can find a doctor to register with.

• Your local library is a great place to find out about local services.

• Integrate yourself into society and learn about UK Culture.

• Join a club, take up a sport or volunteer

- Connected Kingston has lots of ideas to help you integrate into life in Kingston and Volunteering Kingston has volunteering options.
- Learning English:
- You can take an ESOL course.
- You can learn English online at home on a LEAH course.

- You can get help and advice from the:
- Citizens Advice
- Migrant Advocacy Service
- Refugee Action Kingston
- Refugee Action.

- Responsibilities with your housing:
- Look after your property.
- Keep it clean and in good repair.
- If something does not work, you must contact your landlord before more damage is done.
- You must keep your property secure.

• There is lots of useful information in this welcome pack.